

HULIKO‘A KAIĀULU

SCHOLAR SPEAKER SERIES

Join us as we share knowledge and celebrate higher education. Huliko‘a Kaiāulu is a new scholar speaker series for Wai‘anae Coast ‘ohana to learn about topics that impact the community and talk story with one another.

September 16
Tuesday, 5:30 – 8:00 p.m.

Kamehameha Schools Community Learning Center at Nānākuli
89-101 Farrington Highway

---

COME & LEARN MORE FROM:

Kamuela Werner from Mā‘ili & Nānākuli
"DATA IS MANA: ESTABLISHING A NATIVE HAWAIIAN EPIDEMIOLOGY CENTER"

Limitations exist to accurately monitor the health needs and impact of services for approximately 500,000 Native Hawaiians living in the United States. It is critical that we advocate for our own health priorities, especially in light of impending political changes.

Alikā Maunakea from Wai‘anae
"LINKS BETWEEN NATIVE HAWAIIAN CONCEPTS OF HEALTH AND BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH"

---

To better prepare for these events, an RSVP would be greatly appreciated: kapua@ksbe.edu or 668-1517

Stay connected to find out about future presentations:
www.ksbe.edu/kapua

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

School of Hawaiian Knowledge

KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS®

